Mr. Dawkins, I have been faithfully praying for the safe return of my kids to the states, and I know that somehow God has put me in contact with you to make this prayer come true. Only God knows how hard the separation from my kids has been. It has been a true nightmare, a suffering that really has no comparison to anything I have experienced in my life. Throughout this ordeal only God has been my refuge and my strength; and I know that somehow God will make something good come out of this seemingly insurmountable mountain. I just need to keep the faith, and keep pressing on, for as Mother Theresa once said: "God has not called me to be successful. He has called me to be faithful." God bless you and your family. Thanks for all your help.

Shalom,

Mario A. Jimenez Jerez
