RE: Complaint by Mario Alberto Jimenez against Sabrina P. Salomon
The Florida Bar File No. 2014-50,249 (17D)

Dear Ms. Brewer,

Please note my appearance in the above caption matter on behalf of Sabrina P. Salomon, Esq. My client, Ms. Salomon, was out of the country and her flight was delayed yesterday causing this response to be one day late.

The complaint filed against Ms. Salomon by Mr. Jimenez stems from legal advice given to Mr. Jimenez at a hearing that took place on December 7, 2012. During that hearing it was my client's strong legal judgment that it was in Mr. Jimenez best interest to accept offer by opposing counsel to pay for only half of the legal fees incurred by his ex-wife because the presiding judge had clearly indicated he would charge Mr. Jimenez with total amount requested by opposing counsel if no agreement was reached. Mr. Jimenez understood and agreed.

My client never gave advice regarding the appealing of an agreed order, what Ms. Salomon indicated to Mr. Jimenez was that a motion for modification could be filed if he was unable to meet his obligation to make payments.

The bar should also take notice that Mr. Jimenez has filed several bar complaints regarding the same litigation.

Please let me know if I can be of any further assistant.

Very Truly Yours,

Jorge Diaz-Cueto
