Comes now the Petitioner, Rustin P. Wright, directing both the Clerk and Court towards attention of personal conflicts of interest mandating judicial disqualifications from the Clerk’s initial random assignment and otherwise clearly requiring recusal herein, by showing thusly:

See also my Affidavit of Rustin P. Wright on Widespread Corruption, which is hereby now incorporated by reference the same as if it had been fully set forth and herein included (H.I.).

OFFICIAL FEDERAL BIOGRAPHIES REVEAL CLEAR CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The official FJC biography and/or similar historical research of the judges within this District reveals that from 1982-1986 and from 1986-1988, the instant Richard A. Schell of this Eastern District was first a state county Court-at-Law judge for Collin County, Texas, and then next a state district court judge for the Texas 219th Judicial District of Collin County, Texas.

The official FJC biography and/or similar historical research of the judges within this District reveals that from 2004-2009, the instant Amos L. Mazzant, III of this Eastern District was a state justice with the Fifth Court of Appeals of Texas, which routinely hears appeals from state family courts – indeed, these issues engulf a very large share of the overall appellate case load, which situation begs the question of glaringly routine incompetence of such fundamental rights.

The official FJC biography and/or similar historical research of the judges within this District reveals that from 1989-2002, the instant James Rodney Gilstrap of this Eastern District was the chief executive of Harrison County, Texas, i.e., known as the Harrison County Court Judge, or more simply as the Harrison County Judge, and therefore also was legally responsible for untold tens of thousands of fundamental civil rights violations perpetrated upon thousands of natural parents by his underling judges within and regarding the same County during all of those years, i.e., the very same massive patterns and practices of constitutional crimes against citizens that are the direct and primary subject of the corresponding constitutional challenges now raised herein.

Additionally, it appears that Mr. Gilstrap may very well be the primary focal point, root liability, and cause within the entire State of Texas for perpetrating systemic civil rights crimes wantonly against untold numbers of the citizenry at large, regarding ostensible acts of “UPL” (supposedly as “Unauthorized Practice of Law”) performed by “non-licensed” persons, i.e., a wholly arbitrary, capricious, and thoroughly unconstitutional hate-label dishonestly fashioned by the professional legal industry (judges, attorneys, law firms, etc.) in fully clear and outrageous criminal conspiracy to literally steal America’s third branch away from We The People by those very same acts of anti-trust violations in schemes to monopolize the courts and create numerous, widespread, massive and ongoing unjust enrichment schemes for their own professional legal industry crowd, by criminally pretending and conspiring in such routine consumer deceptive acts directly against the consumers and citizens themselves, as falsely portraying that – ostensibly without “using the services” of one of their own class of persons, i.e., an attorney – citizens do not have “access” to their very own courts and court systems, paid for with their very own tax dollars, which court access is also of course an indisputable and immutable constitutional right.

The very same false notion apparently also attempts to whitewash or even outright ignore the same corresponding First Amendment free rights of association with interplexed associational rights of likeminded persons with similar legal interests to freely advise each other on their same mutual legal interests, also violating corresponding Fourteenth Amendment due process rights.

Such massive, clear, and flagrant civil rights criminality perpetrated against the citizenry begs for swift and formal impeachment by the U.S. House Select Panel, numerous prosecutions under various prohibitions of Title 18, equally grim professional discipline, and the resulting civil suits.

However again, Mr. Gilstrap is a singular workaholic for the Unites States’ ongoing need to process and dispose of far too many numerous patent challenge cases, and considering the strong equity interest shared by the government, by business, and by the American people, over such cases being resolved in ongoing timely fashion, it would seem that as long as Mr. Gilstrap shows no interest herein (either directly or indirectly), those equity principles would urge that he should be just left fully alone to continue focusing upon the nation’s same tremendous patent needs, as long as he never again perpetrates any “mistakes” such as throwing out a half-billion-dollar jury verdict over something so incredibly and clearly fraudulent as an ostensibly invalid instruction to the jury - which very same jury instruction was clearly approved prior by Mr. Gilstrap himself...

As a former Texas officer for any such county or district court or appellate court of the state court system, all above persons are clearly disqualified from this constitutional challenge case against the same routinely unlawful practices and patterns of the same exact such Texas county and district and appellate courts knowingly violating citizens' civil rights on truly massive scale, and therefore they have direct conflicts of interest in this case as to prejudicial rulings either for and/or against their very own actions committed within said intertwined prior personal roles, i.e., each is precluded from any engagement within this case because no judge may preside over any case that challenges the legality of his own massive and routine prior actions and/or inactions, and each of the same are further precluded herein because no prior officer or agent of the State of Texas, i.e., anyone who ever worked for and/or got paid by the State of Texas, may preside over a case involving the State of Texas as one of the direct parties within these very serious matters.

The official FJC biography and/or similar historical research of the judges within this District reveals that from 1997-2002, the instant Ron Clark of this Eastern District was a Representative and officer of the State of Texas for and covering state District 62, hence he is precluded herein because no prior officer or agent of the State of Texas, i.e., anyone who ever worked for and/or got paid by the State of Texas, may preside over a case involving the State of Texas as one of the direct parties within these very serious matters. Further, Ron Clark is already facing imminent criminal prosecution(s), disciplinary processes, civil suit(s), and actual impeachment initiated, regarding his own willful, knowing and intentional fraud and obstruction within related matters.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner formally requests the Clerk and this Court take judicial notice of said clear disqualifications via said direct conflicts of interest, accordingly ensure the Clerk to randomly assign this case to the next appropriate judicial officer not so disqualified herein, and Petitioner also further moves and prays for all other relief true and just within these premises.
